LT. COMMANDER(S) PAUL CHABOT RECEIVES INLAND EMPIRE
VETERANS COALITION ENDORSEMENT.

(INLAND EMPIRE, CA) – The Inland Empire Veterans Coalition (IEVC) in a recent decision chose to back LT. Commander(s) Paul Chabot who is running for the 63rd Assembly District. The IEVC issued a strong statement of support for LT. Commander(s) Paul Chabot after officially endorsing him.

Of Chabot, President Adam Hick stated, "It should come as no surprise that this coalition is throwing the full weight of its support behind LT. Commander(s) Chabot. As one of the only individuals in this race that has yet to be affected by politics as usual, his unique background and accomplishments are a testimony to his courage and leadership. After serving under General McCrystal in Iraq, he's more than battle ready for Sacramento."

LT. Commander(s) Chabot has also received endorsements from Rear Admiral Cary (ret.), Chairman of the National Defense Political Action Committee and Admiral Cotton (ret.), Chief of Naval Reserve and Commander of Navy Reserve Force. Today, Admiral Cotton heads the Wardroom, a prestigious group of Naval Reserve Officers who work for the White House and U.S. Congress. These endorsements are the newest additions to a growing coalition of support from veterans groups and law enforcement among others. For more information please select the following link HERE.
