CHABOT ANNOUNCES ENDORSEMENT OF CALIFORNIA PEACE OFFICERS' ASSOCIATION

(INLAND EMPIRE, CA) – March 16th 2010 - 63rd assembly candidate, LT Commander (s) Paul Chabot, announces the endorsement of the California Peace Officers' Association (CPOA). Chabot is the only candidate in this assembly race to have worn a badge and fought alongside those in uniform, which he continues to do today.

John Standish, President of the CPOA, announced the endorsement and offered their association's assistance to the campaign.

"I very much appreciate the CPOA's leadership in serving California. They, like all of our law enforcement partner organizations defend a very thin blue line protecting citizens from violent criminals. It's an honor and privilege to have their endorsement. Thank you for standing with me," said Chabot.

The California Peace Officers' Association was established in 1921 and serves the needs of professional law enforcement. CPOA has over 3,400 members of all ranks from municipal, county, state and federal law enforcement agencies from throughout the state of California.

In addition to the California Peace Officers' Association, Chabot has also received statewide law enforcement endorsements from the California Police Chiefs' Association and the California Narcotics Officers' Association.

LT Commander (s) Chabot, a former active duty special operations intelligence officer, is a leading candidate for the 63rd assembly district seat currently occupied by Assemblyman Bill Emmerson who will step down due to term limits. He lives in Rancho Cucamonga with his wife Brenda and their three children.
