CHABOT ANNOUNCES STRONG SAN BERNARDINO SUPPORT

(INLAND EMPIRE, CA) – March 24th 2010 - T Commander (s) Paul Chabot announces strong San Bernardino support. Endorsed by San Bernardino School Police Officers Association (SBSPOA), San Bernardino City Councilmember Wendy McCammack and San Bernardino's newest City Councilmember, Jason Desjardins.

President of the SBSPOA, Daniel Deane wrote, "The San Bernardino School Police Officers Association is pleased to endorse your candidacy for the 63rd Assembly District. Your credentials and accomplishments are impressive...You are truly a proponent of strong law enforcement and we applaud your efforts."

Councilmember Jason Desjardins, stated, "Paul Chabot is a great American and has solid family values. I am proud to endorse him and call him my friend."

"As a former resident of San Bernardino and reserve law enforcement officer, I am very well prepared for creating legislation to better combat inner-city gangs, crime and illegal aliens, along with new policy solutions to bring businesses back into Inland Empire communities. Low crime, good education, family values, and a strong foundation of businesses can lift a city from its troubles. I firmly believe San Bernardino will once again rise as a vibrant city. I'm invested in every area of this assembly district. Together, we have lots to accomplish and little time to get it done. Send this battle proven veteran to fight for real change," said Chabot.

LT Commander (s) Chabot, a former active duty special operations intelligence officer, is a leading candidate for the 63rd assembly district seat currently occupied by Assemblyman Bill Emerson who will step down due to term limits. He lives in Rancho Cucamonga with his wife Brenda and their three children.
