CHABOT ANNOUNCES ENDORSEMENT OF LOS ANGELES COUNTY PROFESSIONAL PEACE OFFICERS ASSOCIATION

(INLAND EMPIRE, CA) – March 30th 2010 - 63rd assembly candidate, LT Commander (s) Paul Chabot, announces the endorsement of the Los Angeles County Professional Peace Officers Association (PPOA). Chabot is the only candidate in this assembly race to have worn a badge and fought alongside those in uniform, which he continues to do today.

"After careful consideration, Los Angeles County Professional Peace Officers Association is proud to announce their endorsement of your election candidacy for the 63rd Assembly District," said Brian Moriguchi, President.

PPOA represents more than 8,500 law enforcement professionals in the County of Los Angeles.

"I'm grateful for the continued strong support from my fellow law enforcement colleagues. Having served as a public safety officer in Los Angeles, and local communities in the Inland Empire, I know crime has no boundaries and I will fight in Sacramento for a safer California that does not look towards releasing criminals early as a way of saving money. Crooks must be held accountable. I will demand they earn their keep in our jails and prisons to pay for their incarceration," said Chabot.

In addition to the Los Angeles County Professional Peace Officers Association, Chabot has also been endorsed by the California Peace Officers' Association, California Police Chiefs' Association, California Narcotics Officers' Association, Riverside Police Officers Association, Riverside Sheriffs Association and the San Bernardino School Police Officers Association.

LT Commander (s) Chabot, a former active duty special operations intelligence officer, is a leading candidate for the 63rd assembly district seat currently occupied by Assemblyman Bill Emmerson who will step down due to term limits. He lives in Rancho Cucamonga with his wife Brenda and their three children.
