CHABOT TO DELIVER MAJOR SPEECH AT NATIONAL BORDER SECURITY CONFERENCE - HIGHLIGHTS DRUG CARTEL THREAT TO CALIFORNIA

(INLAND EMPIRE, CA) – May 14th 2010 - 63rd Assembly Candidate, LT Commander(s) Paul Chabot's Campaign Surge to Victory continues to gain ground.

Chabot at Mexico Border with U.S. Border Patrol Agents Chabot Surge to Victory

DAY 14

Chabot to deliver major speech at border security conference today highlighting threats to California from drug cartels before a crowd of law enforcement and border concerned citizens. Chabot is public safety's choice and will fight to protect California from the emerging drug cartel threat.

Location: Marriott - Ontario, CA

Time: 10:30AM

Chabot, who has a doctorate degree in executive leadership from the George Washington University, authored a dissertation on Mexico's drug cartels and their resiliency. Chabot has over 15-years of sworn peace officer experience (narcotics, patrol); 9-years as a military intelligence officer (Special Operations Intelligence Officer - Iraq); served as a senior advisor for the White House Drug Czar and worked in the State Department, Department of Justice, U.S. Congress and California Board of Parole Hearings as a Commissioner. He is currently authoring a book on terror organizations.

Chabot will present his strategy to fight and defeat violent drug cartels, which are making significant inroads in California, and the rest of the nation.
