A DAY!

(INLAND EMPIRE, CA) – May 5th 2010 - 63rd Assembly Candidate, LT
Commander(s) Paul Chabot's Campaign Surge to Victory continues to gain ground.

Day 5:

SUPPLIES ON THE FRONT LINES NEEDED:

1. Stamps
2. Copy paper
3. Gas cards
4. Gift cards (Starbucks, movies, food, etc)
5. Cash donations (make it online at www.paulchabot.com)
6. Baked goods and other food items
7. Soda / cases of water
8. Boxes
9. Walkie talkies (10 sets needed to borrow)

10. Razor style stand-up scooters (electric or gas to borrow 10 needed)

Drop off, phone for pick-up, or mail to campaign address listed below.

*The Chabot team has nearly exhausted their supply of 1,000 yard signs and has called in for reinforcements, expected to arrive by week's end. Local businesses have offered to host pick-up points for voters to drop by for their sign. Red Hill Coffee in Rancho Cucamonga is one of those locations.

*Patriots are placing American flags by the large 4x8 foot campaign signs.

*Over 100 miles were driven yesterday by the Chabot Mobile Command Post, meeting voters and handing out information.

*Volunteers canvassed the district handing out information while others phone banked.

*This Saturday's 1776 Shoot-off for Freedom fundraiser at the Redlands Shooting Park is nearing capacity with over 750 invites mailed and thousands of others sent via email. It's going to be a glorious day on the range.

*Reserve your spot now on the front-lines of two phone banking operations this Saturday. Lunch provided. Email Adam at adam@paulchabot.com

*Boots-on-the-ground needed immediately for Special Operations taking place Thursday 6PM. Dinner provided. Email Brenda at brenda@paulchabot.com for details.

*Multiple precinct walks planned for Friday and Saturday in all areas of the district. RSVP immediately to info@paulchabot.com. Food provided.
