CHABOT SURGE UPDATE DAY 6

(INLAND EMPIRE, CA) – May 6th 2010 - 63rd Assembly Candidate, LT Commander(s) Paul Chabot's Campaign Surge to Victory continues to gain ground.

Day 6:

Significant ground was covered in the last 24-hours, thanks in large measure to the campaign's volunteer staff. An additional dozen volunteers signed on to help and donations have significantly increased, day over day.

The campaign has been offered pro-bono (in-kind contribution) airtime, which will be used in a new offensive in the coming days.

Chabot said, "I am humbled by not only all of the volunteers who continue to come onboard, but also by the large amount of in-kind contributions we are receiving. Each day is another building block upon this campaigns foundation for victory. My family and I are having so much fun meeting so many gracious patriots who want to see real change in Sacramento."

FRIDAY: CHABOT SURGE TO VICTORY RALLY - CORNER OF HAVEN AND FOOTHILL 4-5:30PM. FLAGS AND SIGNS TO BE DISTRIBUTED
